WE WELCOME YOU

At 40 Knots, clean ethical wines guide us in every step we take. From farming, cellar management, crushpad and store operation, we grow ultra-premium grapes on Vancouver Island while protecting the environment.

Many of the greatest vineyards in the world are grown near oceans allowing the salt air to permeate the Burgundy oak. Our vineyard sits adjacent to the Salish Sea. With our glacier tilled soil, this rare combination is one you can taste in each glass of 40 Knots hand-crafted wine.

OUR LOCATION

Set in the Comox Valley on Vancouver Island, 40 Knots Vineyard & Estate Winery gently slopes towards the Salish Sea, enjoying the warm ocean breezes and hot valley climate. From the Vineyard, you can hear the sea lions and the swallows. Our beautifully landscaped vineyard offers 60 deep seat lounge patio, a spectacular 150 seat terrace, and a 27 seat upper balcony – perfect view spot to sip your wine and enjoy the company of friends. Our winery offers a spectacular 60 seat lounge, 43 seat tasting room and 50 seats in the cellar for long table dinners. Our cellar boasts a selection of our fine wine, handcrafted wines which are produced using ethical, traditional methods.

Enjoy a stroll through our interpretive trail while enjoying a glass of wine, or have a picnic in our lounge or on our vineyard terrace. Our Stall Speed Lounge, with kitchen, bar, amenities and covered terrace is the perfect spot for corporate and private celebrations. Your guests will be talking about your event at 40 Knots for years to come.

Biodynamic

We are on a quest to become certified biodynamic. We have followed the practices since new ownership in 2014. The best wine is a result of growing practices, and this practice is in keeping with our environmental commitment.

TAKING CARE OF THE LAND

The crew at 40 Knots are passionate about taking care of the land. Farming traditionally and biodynamically was the way of our grandparents and we are proud to continue on the path that they have set. Since the farm became biodynamic, the grapes are disease free, the wine tastes better and there is no need for irrigation. Combining old world traditions with new world technology, (whether these are technological advances of soil health determination or wine analysis) we collaborate with like-minded businesses that are dedicated to making an environmental difference.

Our philosophy is simple; take care the of the grapes, and they will take care of the wine. We use a hands-off approach, with little to no intervention. There are no additives in our wine and our 40 Knots customer's often thank us, saying they can drink our wine again and again with no adverse symptoms. We are proud that our 40 Knots wine is vegan and gluten free with absolute minimal sulphites.

40 Knots has one of the biggest ratio's of philanthropy of any private business. Not only are we involved in many community organizations, we are committed to helping those in immediate risk, hiring those community members at risk themselves. We believe that if we take care of our community, they'll take care of the world.

L'ORANGE

Ancient terracotta, ancient methods, taste this most complex wine that is rooted in history.

SPINDRIFT EXTRA-BRUT

The finest of bubbles in a traditional method sparkling. A perfect wine to wow their first impression.

A WORLD OF OPTIONS

Lounge

We invite you to join us in our 60 seat lounge for one of our special events or why not rent it to host your own? Our aeronautical themed lounge has historic framed prints of the most famous planes in the world. If you play your cards right, you may even see some of them fly over. 40 Knots is on the final approach path to CFB Comox and we celebrate every time a Snowbird, F18 or other spectacular plane enters our flight space.

Vineyard Terrace

With striking views of both land and sea, and a seating capacity of 150 guests, 40 Knots is the perfect destination for your business conference, wedding, party, or celebration. We've become famous for our Wine Wednesdays, showcasing local wine, food and entertainment ranging from Blues to Opera. When the terrace isn't booked for a special event, enjoy a picnic under our shaded pergola. Bring your own, or let us pack an Old World picnic trug with plates, linens, glasses, and a selection from our locally made items of fresh baked baguettes, cheeses, pickled grapes, smoked salmon, chocolate and more. Swing open the doors to a 27 seat balcony overlooking the vineyard.

Deep Seat Patio

Sink deep into our club chairs and couches. Covered, this 50 seat patio offers a cozy spot with fire vessels for added comfort. Available for private rental or a great breakfast area from a meeting.

Cellar Longtable

Dine among the Burgundy oak barrels, dim lighting and cozy ambience of our 50 seat cellar.

Tastings & Experiences

Our wine tastings at 40 Knots are served with our compliments. Yes, that is correct, they are free. We are so confident you will love our wines, that we encourage you try before you buy. All our tastings are led by our qualified crew. Depending upon the day, your tastings may be led by our wine maker, owner or sommelier. Discover our coastal cool climate varieties and traditional wine making methods from champagne style, orange style, Port style and Sauterne style wines.

Interpretive Trail

Our interpretive trail is an easy 20-30 minute stroll, so bring the kids. We have an "On'Tom'all'O'G game where they can look for our little bug helpers in the vineyard and are awarded with a Graduation pin. Enjoy the quiet peace and ocean sounds as you get to know our traditional growing philosophy.

Guided Vineyard Tours

Our sommelier, owners or wine maker would be happy to take you on a guided stroll through our vineyard, stopping at each varietal to explain the growing stage, and how we farm biodynamically. If you are here at the right stage, you can taste the grape as you sip the last vintage. You may even have an opportunity to see how we prune, manage our canopy and harvest our bounty. Premium tastings included.

Private reserved seating

A tasting room associate or owner will offer 6 tastings including various styles from sparkling, still and port-style wines. You will receive a 40 Knots Stall Speed collector wine tumbler filled with a glass of your favorite wine. Guests may choose to enjoy a 20-minute self-guided interpretive vineyard walk and to learn how mother nature is the largest influence of 40 Knots unique and flavorful wines. Of course wine and local food items are available for purchase.

THE SWALLOW

If you've ever purchased a bottle of 40 Knots wine from our cellar door, you may have noticed the Northern Rough-Winged Swallow that adorns our Estate label. These swallows are endemic to our area and frequent our vineyard. Each year we celebrate their arrival as they are not only our friends but a part of our biodynamic crew. Swallows will only live in areas that surround biodynamic balance and their presence speaks volumes to our clean, green vineyard practices. Unlike other species of birds, Swallow's will never harm our grapes and are an excellent bug predator. Next time you're here, perhaps during a guided or self-guided vineyard tour, keep your eyes peeled for swallow birdhouses built to keep the birds safe and give them a home to return to every year.

It has been proven that sound vibrations are an important part of vine health. Italy has been projecting the sounds of opera out into their vines for many years, with the vines closest to the music proving to be the healthiest.

At 40 Knots, our version of this is offered not only to our vines but to our guests as well. If you haven't yet had a chance to partake in one of our popular vineyard terrace Wine Wednesday events throughout the summer, book now before reservations fill up!

40 Knots believes that all of us have the right to love and be loved. This is showcased with our gold medal winning Soleil Rose French Traditional style. The label, "Love is Love", supports the LGBTQ community. We believe that all are equal and we share in the responsibility to support this belief. Even our swallows live with a similar motto. The female and male swallow not only look almost identical, but they also share in responsibilities of the daily chores and protecting their family. Once they mate, they mate for life. This is another quality we give great importance to. We practice loyalty to our community, our family, our friends, and our environment.

Karl Kliparchuk

Try 40 Knots vineyard and Estate Winery if you want to experience the terroir of BC's Vancouver Island wine. Biodynamic, use of terracotta amphora and indigenous yeasts bring out the authenticity of their grapes and vines.

SOLEIL ROSE BRUT

Pink bubbles to celebrate Love. Sophisticated and fun, just like you.

ENVIRONMENTAL & SOCIAL SUSTAINABILITY PROMISE

40 Knots has achieved the highest level of certification through Green Tourism. As well, 40 Knots has been awarded the Comox Valley Chamber of Commerce Sustainability of the Year award.

By evaluating the environmental impact of each process, procedure, and purchase before any decisions are made, we have made great strides towards sustainability. Partnering and collaborating with like-minded businesses has been key to our success.

40 Knots is committed to continuously strive towards zero waste and minimal environmental impact. In fact, we plan to leave it better than we found it.

“It is very exciting to have our work recognized by such an important program and to be among other companies who have the same philosophy. Hearing that Green Step was just awarded Best For the World Environment in 2016 gives our certification even more credibility.” says Brenda Hetman-Craig - owner.

“It’s a great start, with much more work to do. By doing business responsibly, there’s always more we can do, more green partners to meet, and positive impacts we can make on the environment.”

OUR FOOTPRINT: AT A GLANCE

- ▷ We consider the life cycle and carbon footprint with all purchases.
- ▷ 80% of all of our annual purchases are within the valley.
- ▷ We collaborate with the crew and like-minded businesses.
- ▷ We use only natural and environmentally safe products.
- ▷ All vineyard products are 100% organic, using leading-edge products and techniques providing healthy strong vines and disease-free plants.

WINEMAKER

How does a Saskatchewan farm kid end up making wine? To tell the truth, I am still not sure. I will keep doing it until I find out.

Growing up on a farm in the Prairies, there were a lot of opportunities to learn about farming. We brought with us a long tradition of farming from our Irish heritage. We farmed without the aid of chemicals, or synthetic aids. We didn't just grow wheat or cereal grains, we grew huge gardens, fruits, and berries. We lived off the land by following tried and true methods such as crop rotation, complementary crops, tillage, manure, and a cautious read of the farmer's almanac. There are lots of new names for this type of farming, however it is about getting back to our roots and farming naturally. We rely on knowledge of our environment, soils, and crop requirements, while paying attention to our surroundings that send us messages such as birds, animals, bugs, worms and all the things that make our planet habitable. Passed down through our generations, this farming is not new and it isn't the easy method.

Falling in love with the land and growing are basic necessities to being a farmer. I personally always felt that the true satisfaction comes from the end product. I felt that if I could grow the wheat, make the flour and bake the bread, I would feel much more satisfied with the effort. That I would feel much more whole as I looked the customer in the eye and handed them a product I was very proud of, and that was of great quality. That was a very unrealistic dream at the time as a farm kid in Saskatchewan.

Now fast forwarding 25 years...

I am a passionate enophile, loving the art of winemaking, and I love farming. Both my wife Brenda and I made a decision to pursue this direction in our life. We wanted to share farming with our children and grandchildren. We headed out in the direction to find the perfect terrior. I am infatuated with aromatic white wines, great sparkling, and Pinot Noir. Loving the West Coast and Vancouver Island, we had luck in finding the perfect place to assert our passions.

Yes, of course, this has been a quarter century of studying winemaking and viticulture by book, visits, and seminars, but originally I was only a wine geek. Applying and reverting to traditional winemaking methods has continued to challenge me. I have had some great mentors to help me along the way. And still today, I am privileged to have a very astute winemaker look over my shoulder and advise me.

What is my approach to winemaking?

Grow exceptional crops. The earth has been growing grapes for a very long time without the aid of synthetic fertilizers and sprays. Use clean chemical free crops, allowing the grapes to ripen on the vine - this will bring you most of the way to a great wine. Then, hand select, hand harvest, and utilize the traditional methods of native yeast fermentations. Finally, the use of extended skin macerations, and terracotta clay vessels, the use of oak from Burgundy, and no filters or intervention.

I will continue to learn about enology until, well until I am gone—there is so much more to learn. What I do know and live by, is to let grapes become the wine they are intended to become.

— Layne Craig

WINE CLASSES

Where Old World Meets New

Add some class to your 40 Knots stay. We take you on a tasting journey - where Old World Tradition meets New World Wines. After this class, you will have the confidence to select wines for purchase, and evaluating the wines quality. You will discover different wine making methods from around the world, and learn what is actually in wine. Oh yes, the wine is included.

Pair Like a Chef

Easily make decisions of whether to match or contrast flavors and acidity. You will discover the serendipity of the perfect pairing to enhance flavors, savoury and sweetness. Learn how to cook with wine from poaching and pan deglazing to sauces and marinades. Join us by signing up for one of these classes. Oh yes, the wine is included.

Cellar and Serve

Each bottle of wine deserves to be presented at its best. Learn how long to cellar and when that bottle should be opened. From how to serve the perfect bottle of wine to the proper temperature, glassware and tools for opening, we will also delve into aerating and decanting. Oh yes, the wine is included.

John Schreiner

John Schreiner is Canada's most prolific writer of books on wine. "What struck me in tasting the wines reviewed was this: While the alcohol levels are generally moderate, the flavours are fully ripe. That is a sign of excellent viticulture. One of the most successful is Siegerrebe. The wines are lively and fruity." 7/9 wines tasted score 90+.

Alan

“We have always been partial to the Spindrift Extra-Brut as this is a quintessential representation of a méthode champenoise, readily made right here in British Columbia. Kudos to the team at 40 Knots Winery!”

THE CREW

Both Layne and his wife had been in the corporate world for many years and were looking for a change in lifestyle, one that brought them back to their original roots of farming.

Early in 2014, Layne came upon a winery in Comox for sale called 40 Knots. The moment Layne and Brenda stepped on the property, they knew this was home. It just felt right, and by that summer, they were the new owners.

A 4-generation family operation, 40 Knots has big plans for the future. Teaching their children and grandchildren the time honoured traditions of their farming past, it is a truly fulfilling endeavour for their family, and a labour of love.

A FAMILY FARM

Layne Robert Craig

Owner

As co-owner of 40 Knots with wife Brenda, Layne enjoys spending his days getting back to his family roots of traditional farming. You'll often find Layne out in the vineyard, at events, delivering wine or giving guests tours through the cellar for an in-depth look into how 40 Knots is able to create clean wine using traditional methods.

Layne's passion for flying is evident, with the vineyard's location directly below the flight path of planes turning for their final approach to YQQ.

Brenda Hetman-Craig

Owner

Working alongside husband Layne, Brenda's passion for wine (and food) began early on and her appreciation for the local farmer and artisan has deepened through the years. Her environmental stewardship and caring for the community directs Brenda in all business decisions.

She is in her element pouring 40 Knot's crafted wine at events, festivals, Wine Maker's dinners and in the tasting room.

Alana Johnson

Event & Tasting Room Manager

Alana is Brenda and Laynes' youngest daughter. She accomplishes her goals with the same sense of pride and work ethic inherent to her family. She is proud and fierce at both work and play, with her greatest achievement becoming the mother to her two beautiful girls, Kadence Rose and Halo Lily Blu.

Walter Hetman

Chief Grandad Farmer

When Brenda and Layne purchased the winery in 2014, it opened the door for Walter (Brenda's father) and his wife Rose to move from Fort St John, to the Comox Valley. Owner of a welding company, when Walter isn't welding he's farming. With a love of tractors you can usually find his 1956 John Deer model at the winery. Here at 40 Knots Winery Walter is committed to caring for the farm animals and maintaining the vineyard.

WHERE IN THE WORLD IS THE COMOX VALLEY

Centrally situated on the east coast of Vancouver Island, Canada, the Comox Valley is sheltered by the Sunshine Coast. Our Valley faces the sea, embraces the mountains and showcases all that the natural environment has to offer. The Comox Valley offers the charms of small-town living but with urban flair and taste. If you are looking for a peaceful and natural get-a-way, Comox offers full-on adventure to blissful relaxation. The moderate temperatures throughout the entire year make the Comox Valley the place to visit year-round, whether you are trying to get away from stifling heat or prickling cold. In fact, our climate is so moderate, there are days when you can ski, golf, hike our rain forest and swim at the beach all in one day.

FLING BEFORE THE RING

We take care of the finer details to create an elegant gathering with sophistication yet warmth and ambiance.

Our private vineyard balcony overlooks breathtaking views of the grape vines and seats up to 24 guests.

Your special event will include:

- ▶ A personal bartender greets each guest as they arrive with a glass of our bubbly.
- ▶ Elegant lace and burlap decor on our wine barrels surrounded by comfortable full-size chairs.
- ▶ Your place settings set with cutlery and plates.
- ▶ Your balcony is private, complete with the VIP red silk and silver stanchions.

You supply the invitations and bring delicious eats and sweets for your guests.

Plan free time – Plan an adventure

Picture yourself carving down an alpine ski run with an ocean view, Nordic skiing through an ancient forest, or scuba diving in crystal clear waters. You can mountain bike or hike along one of the many river systems in the area, paddle the many kilometers of stunning shorelines or tee off at one of many scenic golf courses. If festivals are the kind of fun you are looking for, the local Comox Valley festivals take place throughout the year, and celebrate everything from music and shellfish, to fine art and aviation.

Enjoy a day of arts and culture at one of the many museums, art galleries, and artists' studios and explore our boutique shops boasting one of a kind local items.

Plan downtime – Go ahead, pamper yourself

Enjoy a day at the spa and indulge in 40 Knot's VinoSpa treatments. Take in a yoga class. Meditate in the rainforest. Float down our rivers, curl up on a beach with your favorite book. Whichever you choose, the Comox Valley will rejuvenate you.

SOUND & MUSIC

Vancouver Island Audio has a mission to elevate your special occasions, events, music performances, and corporate conferences with the most professional, innovative, and convenient AV solutions on Vancouver Island.

Our audio collaborators will get you up and running with powerful yet crystal clear audio in no time. Whether you are a keynote speaker or solo performer, our high-quality equipment will amplify speech and your musical instruments with no need to worry about feedback and dropped words – even if you decide to celebrate in the vineyard without a power outlet in sight.

ENTERTAINMENT

Annie Handley and Dave Devindisch of Easy Street are talented multi-instrumentalists who can make that song their own like no other duo. You can hear their original music on A&E, Duck Dynasty, Jess and Jep—Growing the Dynasty, The Travel Network, Discovery Channel and the Science Channel. They put their own jazzy spin on everything from musical standards of the 1940s, to current pop hits.

We are blessed with a diverse round up of entertainers in the Comox Valley and we'll help you achieve the right balance for your event.

EVENT RENTALS & DECOR

Event rentals and decor are an instrumental element of your event and we can help you with that too. Whether it's your wedding, private occasion or corporate event we have several rental companies serving the Comox Valley. From traditional and elegant to modern and whimsical.

CAPTURING MOMENTS

With access to many talented photographers with experience shooting special occasions, weddings, portraits and commercial photography, we're able to recommend what you need to capture your event on Vancouver Island.

Karen Mckinnon is one of our faves. She has a plethora of photography and community awards under her belt, and years of experience in photojournalism, wedding, portraiture and commercial photography. However, her true definition of success continues to be the connection formed with her clients & opportunity to delve into beauty; both in people, and in nature.

Her beauty is her kindness and thoughtfulness. Her artist outlet is her photography and is often capturing breathtaking images for social media.

Halo Lily Blu

Halo's beauty is one with nature. She is a free spirit. She can often be seen chatting it up with the chickens and geese, running with Ziggy, helping Papa with chores, and adventuring in the vineyard.

Ruby Moon

Ruby's beauty is her strength. She is deliberate in all she does. Although the youngest in the family, Ruby insists her age not get in the way of her ambitions. There is no doubt that older brother Jack has had some influence, as fear is just not in her vocabulary.

WE'LL COME TO YOU

Whether you are wanting wine classes, tastings or wine service, food pairings, we will come to you. Hire us for your next staff function, customer appreciation, mixer or celebration. Just one phone call, and we will take care of the rest including licensing, shipping, serving and even glassware.
